June 4, 2015

We are excited that you have joined us for Reunion 2015!

This booklet will serve as an easy reference for you throughout the weekend. Meals, class liturgies, the schedule of events, class photos, hospitality rooms, and other pertinent Reunion information has been included.

Please note: all information is current at press date. We will keep you updated if times or venues change.

Please feel free to contact a member of the Alumnae Relations staff at 284-4242 if we may be of any further assistance.

Enjoy this weekend. Take advantage of this special time to celebrate, reminisce, share stories, and reacquaint yourself with the changes that have taken place at Saint Mary’s since you were last here.

Sincerely,

Kara M. O’Leary ’89
Director of Alumnae Relations

Heather Shay Jolly ’05
Assistant Director of Alumnae Relations
Name Tags & Wrist Bands | Alumnae and Guests
In lieu of individual tickets for each event, your name badge admits you to the different programs and events throughout the weekend. Therefore, it is necessary to show your name badge visibly at all times. All alumnae and guests attending the picnic/hospitality tent must show their wristbands for service.

Smoking Policy
Smoking is prohibited in all campus buildings. Please do not smoke in your room or inside any campus facility.

Thank you for your cooperation—and welcome to Reunion 2015!
Please Read

A room key is provided for each Reunion registrant. Please lock your room whenever you leave. The College cannot be responsible for the loss of any personal property.

Please wear your name badge at all times.
Your name badge is coded to allow entrance to the meals and special Reunion events for which you have registered. If you lose your name badge, please stop at the registration desk for a replacement.

Guest tickets for special Reunion events may be purchased at the Le Mans Hall registration desk until 2 p.m. Saturday, pending availability. Additional walk-in fees apply.

In case of an illness or an emergency, call Security (574) 284-5000 or the Le Mans Hall registration desk (574) 284-4242.
On-campus golf cart and car service is available until 10 p.m. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, and until 2 p.m. Sunday. Staff wearing Saint Mary’s shirts will provide transportation on campus in marked vehicles.

Notice of messages will be posted on the whiteboard in the Le Mans Hall lobby. Please erase your name once you have received your message.

A schedule of all Notre Dame Reunion activities is available at the Le Mans Hall registration desk.

A shuttle bus will operate between Saint Mary’s and Notre Dame. Please refer to pages 28–29 for the bus schedule and departure areas.

Please contact the Alumnae Relations staff at the Le Mans Hall registration desk, (574) 284-4242, if you require special assistance or transportation to attend any of the scheduled Reunion activities.

Contact the Le Mans Hall registration desk for extra pillows, towels, blankets, and soap, as well as information on the use of wheelchairs.

Please close and fasten the windows when leaving your room for Reunion activities and when you leave campus at the end of Reunion. Be sure to stop at your residence hall desk as you leave to check for any last minute messages.

Finally, when you check out, please leave your room unlocked and remember to return your key.

Thank you.

Take time out for a peaceful reflection on a walking meditation through the labyrinth, a replica of the classical or seventh circuit labyrinth. This ancient symbol of wholeness and transformation inspires inner peace.
Schedule of EVENTS
June 5

11 a.m.–Noon  One Book, One Saint Mary’s Book Discussion
Madeleva Hall, Carroll Auditorium
Ted Billy, Professor Emeritus, Department of English

This marks the fifth year of the Alumnae Association Board of Directors initiative, One Book, One Saint Mary’s. This program encourages the Saint Mary’s community—alumnae, students, faculty, and staff—to read and discuss a chosen book. Professor Billy will lead the discussion on this year’s book, Big Stone Gap, by Adriana Trigiani ’81. The 2015–16 title will be announced at the conclusion of the event.

11:30 a.m.–1:30 p.m.  Lunch
Noble Family Dining Hall

Noon  President’s Lunch for Staff Student Alumnae
Noble Family Dining Hall, West Wing

Noon–6 p.m.  Welcome Class of 2019
Student Center Atrium, Reunion Gift Campaign Table

Stop by the Reunion Gift Table to make a Reunion gift and write a personal note to a first-year student who will begin her Saint Mary’s journey this August. On move-in day, each member of the Class of 2019 will receive a note filled with well-wishes from an alumna. Reunion Gift Campaign helps shape their Saint Mary’s experience. It’s not too late to support Reunion Gift Campaign and help your class meet its goals!

1:15–2 p.m.  Saint Mary’s Belles, Now and Then

(Exclusive for the Class of ’65)
Spes Unica Hall, room 145
Mary Harris Russell ’65 and Norma Tilden ’65

Brief readings will show what some of us have been writing since 1965, with pieces by Norma Tilden, Mary Harris Russell, Carla Aderente, Eva Mary Hooker, CSC, and Mary Char Carroll Daniel (read by classmates) in a variety of forms. If time permits, an open mic session will follow the readings.
Schedule of EVENTS

Friday
June 5

1:30–3:30 p.m.
Let’s Talk! A Celebration of Who We Are Now!
(Discussion exclusive for the Class of ’70)
Regina North Lounge
Facilitated by: Pam Carey Batz, Ronnie Henry Kessenich, Kathy Yuhas Kwinn, and Diane Wallace McKee

In 45 years we have lived a lot, learned a lot, changed a lot, and, most importantly, gained much wisdom. Our discussion, both in small groups and as a whole, will focus on what is important now as well as our vision and hope for the future. Topics will include Spirituality of women in their wisdom years; Raising aging parents; Is it really retirement? What's your ‘to-do’ list?; Making a difference here and now; Practicing daily gratitude for health, family, friendship, and resources; Using prayer, scripture, meditation, and the Church; and Understanding health issues, especially experiences with surgical and non-surgical options. It promises to be a lively event; don't miss it!

2 p.m.
Staff Students Prayer/Remembrance Service
Le Mans Hall, Holy Spirit Chapel

Staff Students will gather for a memorial service to honor and remember their deceased classmates.

2–3 p.m.
Sister M. Madeleva Wolff, 1909:
An Enduring Legacy of Catholic Women’s Leadership
Madeleva Hall, Carroll Auditorium
Laura Haigwood, Professor, Department of English

Now more than ever, Sister Madeleva's brilliant legacy of leadership, service, creative vitality, and spiritual wisdom exemplifies the life of a fully self-realized woman. This presentation on her life and work will focus on Sister Madeleva's lasting lessons for religious and lay women alike regarding how to be true to oneself while faithfully living commitments to others; how to remain attuned to joy in the midst of disappointment, suffering, or loss; and how to maintain an influential place in the public world without sacrificing a vibrant spiritual life. Like her counterpart Father Theodore Hesburgh, Sister Madeleva was especially influential in transforming American images of women religious and Catholic higher education.

2:30–4:30 p.m.
Rewire Your Anxious Brain
Mother Pauline Room
Catherine Pittman, Associate Professor
Department of Psychology and Communicative Disorders

Do you find yourself or a family member coping with anxiety? Although panic attacks, anxiety, and obsessive-compulsive behaviors can be debilitating, the good news is that we know where they arise in the brain, and we know techniques that are effective in reducing anxiety. In fact, we can rewire the brain to become more anxiety resistant. Catherine Pittman, psychology professor, and author of Rewire Your Anxious Brain, will explain strategies for coping with anxiety and stress.

3–3:45 p.m.
Sister Madeleva’s Garden
Welcome Center
Mark Kubacki, Director of Grounds

Sister Madeleva’s love of nature inspired her to consider the campus an outdoor classroom and arboretum for scientific learning and aesthetic enjoyment. Take this walking tour where Mark Kubacki will share with you Sister Madeleva’s vision of the campus’ landscape and how he and his predecessor, Joe Bonadies, used their knowledge of groundskeeping to honor her tradition of landscaping, horticulture, and gardening that goes back to the 19th Century. The tour will begin at the Welcome Center and end at Sister Madeleva’s final resting place in Our Lady of Peace Cemetery. Wear comfortable shoes.

3–3:45 p.m.
The Filming of Big Stone Gap
(Exclusive for the Class of ’65)
Student Center, Vander Vennet Theatre
Adriana Trigiani ’81 (via Skype)

Adriana Trigiani will share stories with us via Skype including her movie-making adventures in her hometown of Big Stone Gap, Virginia. We will have an open Q&A session, so be sure to read her wonderful books.

3–4 p.m.
Career Crossing Office Open House
114 Spes Unica Hall
Stacie Jeffirs, Director, Career Crossings

While you are visiting and catching up with your friends, be sure to stop by the Career Crossings Office to learn more about services for alumnae and to pick up information on re-entering the workforce, re-careering, or surviving a downsize with your employer. The CCO staff will be happy to answer any questions you might have and provide you with resources to help you succeed in your next career pursuits.

3–4:30 p.m.
Center for Women’s Intercultural Leadership (CWIL) Open House
50 Spes Unica Hall
Elaine Meyer-Lee, Director, CWIL

You are warmly invited to visit the Center for Women’s Intercultural Leadership to hear about all the different programs that empower women to realize their call to leadership and to develop the intercultural knowledge and competence critical in today’s increasingly interdependent world.
Learn about new study abroad options, Saint Mary’s English Language School, our Women’s Entrepreneurship Initiative, and an exciting new Global Women Leaders summer institute. We welcome your feedback and would love to hear of ways in which we can collaborate more closely with our alumnae. Light refreshments will be served.

3–5 p.m. Bell Tower Tours
Le Mans Hall, fourth floor

Through a self-guided tour, explore the majestic and historic Bell Tower of Le Mans Hall, an idyllic symbol of Saint Mary’s College since the late 1920s. Experience the best view of campus extending from downtown South Bend to Notre Dame’s Golden Dome. Participants should wear comfortable shoes and feel at ease with walking up several flights of stairs. Don’t forget your camera! Just as Le Mans Hall was built through the generosity of alumnae, parents, and friends, this tour is sponsored by the Reunion Gift Campaign through which Reunion classes give back to Saint Mary’s to ensure that the College’s legacy will continue for future generations.

3:30–4:15 p.m. Staff Students—A Look Back
Le Mans Hall, Reignbeaux Lounge
Austin Stahly, Manager of Energy and Facilities

Join us as we revisit memories of our days in the kitchen of the old Le Mans Dining Hall. Austin Stahly will share the original blueprints of Le Mans Hall as we tour the renovated areas of the old kitchen while solving the puzzle of “what used to be where?”

3:30–4:30 p.m. 150 Years Later: Reflections on the Civil War
Spes Unica Hall, room 145
Bill Svelmoe, Associate Professor, Department of History

Bill Svelmoe reflects on the legacy of the Civil War 150 years after it came to an end at Appomattox Courthouse. The War brought an end to slavery, but it also left deep scars. After a century and a half, are we still a divided nation?

3:30–4:30 p.m. The Art of Lebanese Cuisine
Student Center Atrium
Maureen Abood ’90

Maureen Abood ’90 will share a cooking demonstration, with delicious tastes and drinks for everyone, from her new cookbook, Rose Water & Orange Blossoms: Fresh and Classic Recipes from my Lebanese Kitchen (Running Press). Maureen will talk about her path from food blogger to cookbook author while showing techniques and describing the ingredients of Lebanese cuisine. Books will be available for purchase and Maureen will sign books as well.

At the end of The Avenue, you met your closest friends, made lasting memories, and received the education that paved your future. And now, you can make The Avenue more than memory lane.

Introducing Our Avenue, online social and career communities exclusively for Saint Mary’s alumnae.

Our Avenue is the new path to uniting with classmates; searching alumnae by location, graduation year, or industry; registering for Reunion and other events; and mentoring opportunities with current students and other alumnae.

Sign up today at alumnae.saintmarys.edu and stay connected with the College, with your classmates, with your Avenue.
Welcome Home Alumnae

The Alumnae Board of Directors invites you and your family to attend an on-campus pre-game Tailgater!

Saturday, September 19
Notre Dame vs. Georgia Tech
Dalloway’s Clubhouse*
10 a.m. Noon

Gather with old friends, professors, meet current students, and enjoy a bowl of chili before crossing the street to Notre Dame. Park at Saint Mary’s for only $20 to benefit our varsity athletic teams. There is an on-campus shuttle available to and from the Notre Dame Bookstore.

An encore performance by Bellacappella, the exquisite voices of Saint Mary’s own a cappella group!

*Dalloway’s Clubhouse is just south of Madeleva Hall facing the parking fields.

Remember,
You’re Saint Mary’s!
More than a degree, your Saint Mary’s experience launched your future, and with that education, you’ve soared.
Now it’s time to go higher.

Lead Change | Change Lives | Advance Your Career

With Saint Mary’s graduate programs, you’ll get a Saint Mary’s education like the one that elevated you to where you are today, along with technical know-how, leadership development, and an eye toward innovation. Let Saint Mary’s graduate programs take you to that next step in your life.

Available Graduate Programs
- Master of Science in Data Science
- Master of Science in Speech Pathology
- Doctorate of Nursing Practice

Continue the Legacy

We are so grateful to all who have supported

Reunion Gift Campaign

In addition to supporting Saint Mary’s legacy through a Reunion gift, join us in welcoming the next generation of Belles as they begin their Saint Mary’s journey this August. We invite you to write a personal note filled with well wishes for the young women who will follow in your footsteps. On move-in day, each member of the Class of 2019 will receive a note from an alumna.

Reunion Gift Campaign helps shape their Saint Mary’s experience. It’s not too late to make a gift and help your class meet its goals. The competition for class awards is open until Saturday, June 6, at 2 p.m.

Visit the Annual Fund table, make a gift, and write a note.

Student Center: Friday, Noon–6 p.m.
Reunion Picnic: Saturday, Noon–2 p.m.

Please note that you can pick up and drop off your cards for the Class of 2019 at the registration desk in Le Mans Hall or at the Annual Fund table in the Student Center.

Follow the Alumnae Association on:
Imagine making Saint Mary’s a part of your special day!

The beautiful and historic campus is a perfect background for your pictures, but we also offer wedding ceremonies and have rooms available to rent for wedding receptions, rehearsal dinners, and much more.
